

AMI Global Logistics completes a cooperation agreement with Ahlers India.

Acquisition boosts portfolio to offer even greater value to customers of both companies.

Antwerp, 23 March 2021

AMI Global Logistics and Ahlers agreed to transfer the activities from Ahlers India effective March 23, 2021, to AMI Global Logistics. The acquisition of the Ahlers India business unit will help AMI Global Logistics boost its footprint in India and enhances its service portfolio.

The leadership position of AMI Global in the India-Africa cargo logistics is further strengthened with this acquisition. The cooperation agreement also greatly adds to AMI Global's service capabilities with deeper reach, inland cargo, and special logistics in the African continent.

It's a great match, as both companies focus on creating innovative and value-adding solutions for their customers. Agility and innovation are key to survival in a fast-paced logistics environment.

"AMI Global Logistics recently completed its 25 years in business and Ahlers comes with a legacy of 110 years, so this is a proud moment for all of us. Our cooperation agreement reflects a deep culture match, customer focus, and significant expertise that is coming together. It's a game-changing synergy that will positively impact all our customers, people, and the ecosystem that we now serve together." says Mr. Dinesh Lal, Chairman, AMI Global Logistics.

"Ahlers is pleased about this cooperation agreement with AMI Global Logistics. We are convinced that our business activities out of India will thrive well under the management of AMI Global and that our customers will receive the best possible support" says Samar Kalgaonkar, General Manager, Ahlers India.

"Ahlers has launched a transformation journey in the past two years with a commitment to strengthening its approach to new business development, widen its warehouse footprint in Russia and CIS and improve the company's operational performance and productivity through increased focus on our core services and markets", adds Stefan Van Doorslaer, CEO of the Ahlers Group.
